From Thursday June 20. to Monday June 24. 1706.

Gibraltar, May 31. O. S.

HER Majeſty's Ship the Roebuck, Capt. Kempthorn Commander, is juſt now come in here from Barcelona, having been 17 Days in her Paſſage: She brings an Account, That Sir John Leake would ſoon come this way with the Confederate Fleet, in order to take Alicant, Cartagena, Malaga, and the other Towns along that Coaſt; his Excellency the Earl of Peterborow intending at the ſame time to march by Land with an Army of about 25000 Men. The Prince of Heſſe was to remain at Barcelona, of which Place he is made Governor.

From the Camp at Salamanca, June 11. N. S. The Confederate Army came before Ciudad-Rodrigo the 21ſt paſt. We were informed, that 6 Pieces of Cannon had that day been brought into the Place, being guarded by a Party of the Enemy's Horſe; and that the Gariſon conſiſted of one Battalion of regular Troops, and between 2 and 3000 of the Country People in Arms. The 23d we received 12 Cannon 24 Pounders, and 6 Mortars, from the Frontiers of Abeira; and the Mortars were placed upon a Battery, and began to play the ſame Night. The 24th a Portugueſe Battery of 10 Guns began to fire. The 25th an Engliſh Battery of 6 Guns began to play early in the Morning. That Day 12 Barrels of Powder in the Magazine that ſerved the Battery of Mortars blew up by Accident, and ſet fire to ſeveral Bombs, beſides which it did no other Damage than the killing of 11 Men. The 26th, the Breach being wide enough for the giving an Aſſault, the Governor was ſummoned to ſurrender, who thought fit to comply, and the Capitulation was ſoon agreed upon; by which he, with the other principal Officers of the Gariſon, and the Battalion of regular Troops, were to march out the 28th, with the uſual Marks of Honour, obliging themſelves not to bear Arms againſt his Catholick Majeſty King Charles the Third during the Space of one Year: The Country People were to leave their Arms behind them, to return to their reſpective Dwellings, and not to take up Arms any more againſt the Houſe of Auſtria. The 3d Inſtant we marched from Ciudad-Rodrigo towards this Place. The 5th the Marquis das Minas received a Letter of Submiſſion from this Town, with Advice, That the Duke of Berwick was marched from thence with his ſmall Army. The 7th we came to this Camp. The Magiſtrates met us a League and half out of Town in their Formalities, and made their Submiſſion to King Charles. The Duke of Berwick is retired to Corita, which is above 7 Leagues from hence, in the way to Madrid. To morrow we are to march forward towards Guadarama, by the way of Peguaranda.

Rome, June 5. N. S. Signior Philippuci, whom the Pope had named to be a Cardinal in the late Promotion, having excuſed himſelf from accepting that Dignity, the Pope has conſented that he ſhould reſign his Cap; which he has accordingly done. The Abbot Moſca being appointed to carry the Cap to Signior Badoer, another of the new Cardinals, is gone from hence to Loretto, where he is to meet him in his Journey from Venice to this Place.

Genoa, June 5. N. S. Letters from Rome of the 1ſt Inſtant ſay, The Pope has appointed Signior Anguiſciola to reſide as his Nuncio at Venice, in the room of Signior Cuſani, who is appointed to go with the ſame Character to the Court of France; and that they had an Account from Naples, that a Squadron of 4 Men of War that belong to Malta had taken a Ship belonging to Tunis of 28 Guns; on Board which were 360 Slaves, and among them ſeveral Renegadoes. Cardinal Janſon paſſed by St. Remo the 3d Inſtant, being on Board one of our Gallies, going to Antibes. We have had no News from Catalonia ſince thoſe of the raiſing the Siege of Barcelona, and of the Retreat of Marſhal de Teſſe with the French Army under his Command to Perpignan.

Milan, June 8. The Dutchy of Modena is to provide many more Wagons and other Neceſſaries for the French Army commanded by the Duke of Vendoſme than the laſt Year, the French being in great diſtreſs for want of them. They write from Prince Eugene's Army, That he had lately received a Reinforcement of 4000 Men from Germany, and expected more Troops, and then he would be in a Condition to attempt the Paſſage of the Adige. We have an Account from the Camp before Turin, That the Duke de la Feuillade having ſent the Count de Marignan, by Order of the French King, to carry Paſſports for the Dutcheſs and Princeſſes; His Royal Highneſs had refuſed them, ſaying, He had provided otherwiſe for their Security. That they fired very furiouſly from the Town, and very much annoyed the Beſiegers; killing abundance of their Men, and ruining their Works.

Venice, June 12. The Marquis Pauletti paſſed lately by this Place in his way from Germany to Turin, being diſpatched by the Elector Palatine to the Duke of Savoy. He brings a Confirmation of the News of the glorious Victory and further great Succeſſes obtained by the Arms of the Allies, under the Conduct of his Grace the Duke of Marlborough, over the French Forces in the Netherlands. Prince Eugene continues encamped near St. Michel; from whence they write, That his Highneſs upon the Receipt of this welcome News had cauſed Te Deum to be Sung, and a triple Diſcharge to be made of all his Cannon and Small Arms: That the Marquis de Langalerie, who has left the French Service, and is made a General of Horſe in the Emperor's Pay, is lately arrived there from Vienna; as is likewiſe the Count de Bonneval, General of Battalia: That his Highneſs had ſent a Detachment of 2000 Horſe with 4 Pieces of Cannon towards Bonavigo, with Orders to endeavour to make a Bridge there over the Adige: And that he hoped by the 20th Inſtant to be joyned by a ſufficient number of Troops from Germany, to enable him to paſs that River, and oblige the Enemy to retire.

Warſaw, June 11. The King of Poland is now at Lobzovia; his Army is encamped near Cracow. They write from Lithuania, That on the 20th paſt there happened an Action near Lacowisk, wherein the Loſs was ſaid to be equal on both ſides.

Francfort, June 19. Our Army continues in the ſame Poſt. The French are encamped near Spire. A Party from the Gariſon of Landau lately ſeized a Courier, who was carrying Letters from the French Court to the Marſhal de Villars, which were brought to Prince Lewis.

Dublin, June 15. On the 4th Inſtant, Captain Saunders, Commander of Her Majeſty's Ship the Shoreham, ſailing to the Weſtward with ſome Ships bound to the Weſt-Indies, came up with a French Privateer of 8 Guns and 53 Men, and chaſed her into Bantry Bay in Beer-Haven, where he took her: She is called the Francis of Cherbourg, Captain Owen Richard Commander.

Falmouth, June 15. The Pembroke Galley of London ſailed hence the 13th Inſtant in the Evening, being laden with with Wine and Fruit, and homeward-bound from Lisbon. At the ſame time ſailed the Philip of London, laden with Sugar and Fruit from Lisbon, and bound to Hamburgh; and the Porpus of Rotterdam, homeward-bound from Ireland. Yeſterday came in the St. Joſeph of Bilboa, bound home from Briſtol; and the Noſtra Signora de la Solidad of Bilboa ſailed hence for London, being laden with Wool and Iron. This Day ſailed the St. Nicholas of Bilboa, bound alſo for London with a like Cargo; and the Schonenberg, a Dutch Privateer, came in here from cruiſing.

Falmouth, June 17. The Queen Packet-Boat arrived here laſt Night from Lisbon, having been 8 Days in her Paſſage: She brings an Account, That the Confederate Army commanded by the Earl of Galway and the Marquis das Minas had taken Ciudad Rodrigo, and was afterwards marched to Salamanca; and that Town, with ſome other Places thereabouts, had declared for King Charles the Third. That the Army was to march towards Guadarama, in the Way to Madrid; That the Marquis das Minas had ſent for 3 Regiments from Alcantara, 2 from Coria, and all the Auxiliary Regiments in Abeira, with 500 Horſe, to reinforce his Army; That Orders had been given for the paying of two Regiments which were to march to Alcantara; That a ſeparate Body of the Portugueſe Troops, which has taken the Field on the ſide of Eſtramadura, had reduced Xeres de los Cavalleros, a Place about 7 Leagues diſtant from Badajos; And that their third and laſt Fleet from Brazil was ſafely arrived, and with it two Spaniſh Prizes, very richly laden, which were ſeized in Rio Janeiro, upon the Receipt of the News there of the King of Portugal's being admitted into the Grand Alliance, and having declared War againſt France and Spain.

Plimouth, June 18. The Philip and the Pembroke Galley, both of London, which lately came in here from Falmouth, put to Sea again yeſterday. The ſame Day came in a Daniſh Ship laden with Deals for Lisbon; and ſome Veſſels from Loo and Fowey, laden with Coals. This Day came in Her Majeſty's Ships the Penzance and Hound, and under their Convoy two Ships from Viana, bound for London, 3 bound for Rotterdam, and 18 Coaſters laden with Coals, Rock-Salt, and other Goods, for this Place and other Ports to the Eaſtward. Here are likewiſe come in the Patience of Dram in Norway, bound hither, and a French Prize called the Oliver of Bourdeaux, laden with Sugar from the Weſt-Indies, taken by a Privateer of Flushing.

Briſtol, June 19. Yeſterday came in the Severn Galley of this Place, in 29 Days from Leghorn. This Day arrived the Bridgewater, and under her Convoy ſeveral Veſſels from Corke, but laſt from Waterford; and the Betty Sloop from Gibraltar.

Yarmouth, June 21. Yeſterday came into our Road a Fleet of Merchant-ſhips from Hull, under Convoy of ſeveral Men of War. Divers laden Colliers paſſed through our Road at the ſame time to the Southward.

Windſor, June 16. This day Count Gabas, Envoy Extraordinary from the King of Spain, had a Publick Audience of Her Majeſty, in which he preſented a Letter of Thanks from his Maſter for the timely Succours ſent for the Relief of Barcelona. He had likewiſe afterwards a Publick Audience of His Royal Highneſs Prince George of Denmark, to whom he alſo preſented a Letter upon the ſame Occaſion: He was conducted to both theſe Audiences by Sir Charles Cottrel, Maſter of the Ceremonies.

Windſor, June 22. The following moſt dutiful and loyal Addreſſes, congratulating Her Majeſty upon the moſt Glorious and Happy Succeſs of Her Arms and thoſe of Her Allies, and more eſpecially thoſe under the Command of his Grace the Duke of Marlborough, have been preſented to Her Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgeſſes, of the City of Gloceſter, in Common Council aſſembled; preſented by the Rt. Hon. the Earl of Berkeley, Lord Lieutenant of the County and City of Gloceſter.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriffs, and Common Council, of the City of Briſtol; preſented by Robert Eyre Eſq; their Recorder, introduced by Mr. Secretary Harley.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor and Commonalty of the City of New Sarum; preſented by Robert Eyre and Charles Fox Eſqs; their Repreſentatives in Parliament.

All which Addreſſes Her Majeſty received very graciouſly.

Whitehall, June 21. By Letters come in this Evening from on Board the Squadron of Her Majeſty's Ships before Oſtend, Commanded by Sir Strafford Fairborne, we have an Account, That the Trenches were opened before that Place the 17th Inſtant, O. S. within Piſtol-ſhot of the Covered-way with the Loſs of about 50 Men: That they had begun to bombard the Place, and had deſtroyed ſeveral Houſes, and put the Inhabitants under great Conſternation; and that there was a Scarcity of freſh Water in the Place, which put them to great Inconveniences. They add, That the Gariſon of Dendermond had deſired a Ceſſation of Arms for 24 Hours, which was granted them.

The Dutch Mails of Tueſday and Friday laſt are not yet come in.

Whereas a Letter ſigned L. O. dated the 6th of this Inſtant June, was directed to William Lowndes Eſq; Secretary of the Treaſury: Theſe are to give Notice, That if the Perſon who wrote the ſaid Letter will repair to Samuel Travers Eſq; Her Majeſty's Surveyor-General, at his Office in Sackville-ſtreet in Picadilly, and make out what he hath therein propoſed, he ſhall receive all fitting Encouragement.
